2. I briefed Dick Helms on my proposal to change the name of Office of Budget, Program Analysis and Manpower to the Office of Planning, Programming, and Budgeting and to establish two division within the office, i.e., the Budget Division and the Planning and Programming Division. I also stated my desire to appoint as Chief of the Planning and Programming Division. Dick approved this. I later advised Ray Cline and Paul Borel and also talked with who seemed complimented and accepted the position. I advised John Clarke to proceed accordingly.	ns 25X
